

Cease And Desist Order

Whereas Beer Nuts Inc. is a big company and you are a little homebrew club, we assert our ownership of the term Beer Nuts.

Therefore you need to remove your Facebook page immediately because we feel our customers are dumb as rocks and can't tell the difference between homebrew and nuts.

Furthermore, we have dozens of lawyers with nothing better to do than sue a non-profit into oblivion, while you are represented by a liberal arts major who stayed at a Holiday Inn Express last night. Failure to comply immediately will be dealt with harshly. Please continue to enjoy our fine products.
